

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Webster, the county seat of Day County, is a progressive business community with value added agriculture, industry, and health care; and,

Whereas, Webster and the surrounding Day County area is "a place for all seasons" offering the best in walleye, perch, and northern fishing, as well as excellent waterfowl and upland game hunting; and,

Whereas, Webster is where history, culture, and the natural world of the Glacial Lakes Region of South Dakota come alive on the slopes of the Coteau des Prairies; and,

Whereas, Webster promotes recreation and tourism through area attractions such as the Museum of Wildlife, Science, and Industry; the Day County Museum; the Blue Dog Fish Hatchery; and their annual PumpkinFest; and,

Whereas, Now, state government is going on the road to the people of Webster and the surrounding area in a unique program called "Capital for a Day"; and,

Whereas, Capital for a Day is designed to provide a local forum whereby an exchange of ideas, information, and concerns among the governor, cabinet officials, representatives for the private business sector, local elected officials, special interest groups, and the general public can occur:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 21, 2008, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifteenth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eight.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
